The new Spalding® training aids will help take your game to the next level.

Training Areas:

- Shooting and Ball Handling:
  Emphasize and develop proper shooting form and strengthen ball handling

- Jumping and Rebounding:
  Explode with power into your jumps and compete for rebounds

- Speed and Strength:
  Develop muscle endurance and increase speed to outperform the opponent

- Defense and Agility:
  Improve agility and decrease response time by enhancing muscle memory

The Spalding® exclusive training aids have informative videos on use and instruction. Under each icon skill set, a player can choose their level of play and up their game. Complete all three levels of skills to advance your game!

Spalding® Basketball IQ™ was created with a single purpose: to provide innovative tools and techniques that inspire and enable those ready to take their game to the next level.
